REVIEWS

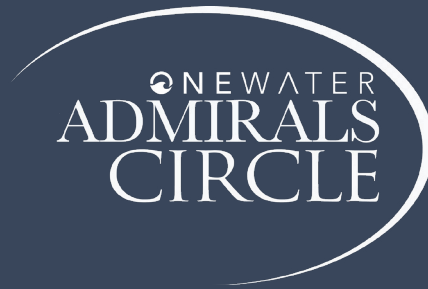

★★★★★ 5-STAR REVIEWS

Phil Dill Boats

I bought my boat in Florida but had horrible customer service since I signed the papers. The moment I was sold, I had issues with service. I live back in Dallas, and PDB is the only place I will allow to service my boat. They always go above and beyond for me and value my business. The men and women working here are a family unto themselves and do their best to always help me save money, make good decisions on service or replacement, and allow me to maintain the integrity of my boat for years to come. I recommend this place for boat sales or service.
